

November 2022

THE POWER OF PROCUREMENT

Presented by Matt Hawkins

A Problem Shared

Influencers & The Business Case

Standing on the back of giants

THE POWER OF PROCUREMENT- EVALUATION QUESTIONS

Question 5: Software: Use of sensory modalities.

Where the software conveys information by sound, touch, text or visual notification, does it have an equivalent notification that uses another modality?

For example: If there is a beep, is there also a text notification?

Key Learnings

THANK YOU

Presented by Matt Hawkins
Matthew.Hawkins@anz.com

<https://www.and.org.au/>

ADDITIONAL CONTENT

THE POWER OF PROCUREMENT- SCORING TEMPLATE

Scoring Template
SCORING NOTES	QUESTIONS	PRIORITY	(TO BE POPULATED BY THE SUPPLIER) RESPONSES: YES = 5 NO = 0 OTHER = Range 1 to 4 depending on desirability of reply				OTHER			OTHER explanatory or supporting text which may be considered to support your response, this section will contribute to your score.	SCORE
			YES	NO	OTHER	Resolved by a release delivered in less than 1 year (4)	Resolved through configuration (3)	Resolve via customisation, free of charge (2)	Resolve via customisation (charged for) (1)
SOFTWARE
Q1	Software: Assistive Tech. Is the software natively compatible with assistive technology?	Must
Q5	Software: Use of sensory modalities. Where the software conveys information by sound, touch, text or visual notification, does it have an equivalent notification that uses another modality? (For example: If there is a beep, is there also a text notification?)	Must									